Martin O'Shaughnessy's observation that La Marseillaise can be seen as 'the welding together of two conflicting gendered stories' - a 'male nar- rative of coming of age' and one in which 'women are seen to play an assertive, powerful and violent role' O'Shaughnessy, - foregrounds the otherwise largely neglected importance of gender in Renoir's work. And although products may change, the specified dimensions and weights must remain the same, so you need close communication with manufacturers.
